STATEMENT

THE STATE OF TEXAS

[redacted]

BEFORE ME, THE UNDERSIGNED AUTHORITY, a Notary Public in and for the STATE OF TEXAS, on this day personally appeared [redacted] known to me, who being sworn to me upon her oath deposes and says:

[redacted]

1. I am updating this affidavit to reflect more information and to clarify some statements and correct mis-spelled words.
2. Galen Beede contacted me on the ultra-conservative website National Liberty Alliance (NLA) and asked for my phone number. I gave him my phone number and he called me.
3. That since that time Galen Beede has made many sexual advances (passes) towards me, all of which I probably do not remember, but some I do specifically recall and some I generally recall.
4. Galen Beede called me for the first time and asked if I was happily married and stated that he was not happily married. This was in 2015 or 2016.
2. After I gave Galen my phone number I began to receive calls from an "Unknown" number with a man breathing heavily into the phone. This happened a few times and never happened prior to me giving him my number. After a few of these heavy breather calls and after a few calls with Galen over the phone I started to recognize that the heavy breather and Galen sounded a lot alike. The last time the person called me breathing heavily I asked to the effect of, "Is this Galen?" And the person made a noise, as if he possibly dropped the phone and then hung up. Almost immediately after, Galen called me and I said, was that you that just called me, and he said something like, What? No! But I felt that I knew it was him. The heavy breather and Galen sounded alike.

3. Galen Beede has made many attempts/passes toward me to begin a sexual relationship with him.
4. Galen Beede would call me to tell me he missed me and loves me. My husband heard this on one specific occasion that I recall. My husband did ask me about it. [redacted]
5. Galen Beede at times would attempt to keep me on the phone until I reciprocated his love and wanted me to state to the effect that, I love you Galen Beede, asking me to say, I love you, and that was not enough I had to also say his name. I did not find this in itself particularly unusual since some Christians would say this prior to hanging up so I told myself it was nothing. My husband did not like it though and would get upset with me. I basically shrugged it off.
6. That Galen Beede would call me on the phone and say to the effect, hey sweet cheeks, what's up? Or similar things with the phrase, sweet cheeks. That at least one time, my husband heard Galen Beede say this on the phone and my husband became upset with me. Galen became apologetic and said he was sorry. He would do it again though but began to ask "can you talk?" Before assuming I was alone. I always said yes, because I was not and never was planning on saying anything inappropriate.
7. That Galen Beede would call me on Valentines Day, he would say he missed me, he would say he wanted to see me, he would say his wife and he does not celebrate Valentines together, that he would buy her something and that was all. If in doubt, past calls and texts from his phone bill and mine will or should show all the information here is true. There were a lot of calls from him to me.
8. That Galen Beede said to me that he made enough money to support two households. He often suggested that he could take care of me. (I understand situations like that to be bad ones. I did not want to put myself in a position to depend on him. I felt that the second his wife finds out he would bail on me. This is not to say that I contemplated it but at times my husband was mean and made it easy to want to walk away from my marriage. I felt Galen was a coward, all talk, that if he truly was unhappy he would not wait to find a woman to leave for, that he would just leave. I felt a bit insulted, he thought I was dumb enough that I would leave my marriage on a promise or just words and not any real actions by him that he really meant what he said. I began to realize over time that Galen was just trying to use me, he said a lot of nice things, wanted sex and promised money or favors in return.)
9. Galen Beede has said to me many times that he, needed a second wife. (Again I felt insulted, I have no idea why he thought I would be okay with being a second wife. I'm not the kind of woman who wants to be a first wife most of the time, I certainly would not want to be a second one. This told me [redacted] he just wanted sex, was willing to have it with anyone, anywhere, anytime. A situation far beneath me, something young and dumb people do.)

10. That Galen Beede brought his father to my business, Galen said of his father that he is super conservative, something to that effect. That he has certain political views. He also commented that his dad would say certain things and not to take him seriously or not to listen to him, something like that. His father came into the dinning area of my restaurant They sat down. I served them lunch, I accidentally gave Galen green-beans with bacon, His father and I joked about how Galen is funny or weird about eating pork. I do not recall his father's name, His father said that Galen did not love his wife, that she was fat, that he (the father (senior Beede)) would watch my daughter if Galen and I wanted to "spend time together," then Galen Beede went to the male restroom. That his father, after a few minutes said, "don't you want to go check on Galen." I told him no, he was probably going poop. But I knew what was going on. Galen brought his father to my business so he could watch my daughter who was about 4 or 5 years old so that I could "be" with Galen. (I was not interested in having sex in the mens restroom. I felt like that was childish and immature, I don't know what he was thinking and as far as I could remember, I never gave him any idea that I would do something like that.) After a little bit Galen Beede came back into the dining area of my restaurant and said he had to clean the restroom because it was a mess. I believed he was waiting for me in the restroom and that he believed I would go to him for sex and that was what his father wanted us to do. Galen Beede did seem upset when he returned. I felt like my head was spinning by all that was going on and that this was embarrassing and insulting to me that he thought I would have sex with him in a dirty mens restroom.
11. At another date Galen Beede came to the restaurant that I owned, he was having lunch and was hanging out with me, I did enjoy his company, he was very nice, my son [redacted] was there. Galen was talking about his wife, his marriage. I told him maybe she needed to do something to fix herself, I told him that a lot of women have loose vagina especially since they hit their forty's maybe she needed a "designer vagina." I told him I had mine done and how great it is I told him my husband buys me whatever I want. He, Galen, said she would never do that. I told him, you need to talk to her and he said, she won't. She just absolutely will not do that. He said I need to be friends with his wife. I tried to be friends with Judith but people know when someone else just does not like them, I don't think she liked me. I thought that If I talked to Galen about this he would talk to his wife and perhaps she would do something like this for him and they would be happy or he would be happy. I tried very hard to always consider her and what was the right thing to do. My son heard all of the conversation, I never felt it reached an inappropriate level. My son already knew I had the surgery since it was a difficult healing process and I needed a lot of help at home. I did not feel there was anything inappropriate said during this conversation, it was all about how Galen could be happy with his wife, about options available to them that perhaps they were unaware of. We didn't speak of Galen cheating on his wife, but the underlying tone was there were options available that perhaps they are not aware of, better options than cheating.

12. At some point in time later, weeks or months, I do not recall, Galen Beede called me on the phone and said to the effect that his dad had died. He did seem a bit distraught so I believed him. He said that it was his dad's dying wish that he and I be together. To this day I do not know if his father actually died or if Galen Beede had made up the whole thing to guilt me (or generally just make me feel sorry for him) into having sex with him. At the time, I believe I asked him, why his dad would make something like that his "dying wish," he said because his dad wanted him to be happy.
13. That Galen Beede asked me on one occasion if there was something wrong with him, if there was anything he could change about himself. I do not recall exactly what I said, it was to the effect that there was nothing wrong with him. I did not want him to feel self conscious. To my knowledge, I have never said or done anything to Galen to make him feel bad or badly about himself. I understood that people go through things and that I could be a good friend to him and help him out mentally, not sexually. He was never mean to me so I saw no reason to be mean to him. I simply told him nothing is wrong with him.
14. Galen Beede, Called me while he was in the shower and told me he was washing his balls. I didn't really think much of it, it did not really bother me. I didn't really make it a big deal. I just thought, well it is Galen doing his usual thing.
15. I received a text from someone who said she was Judith Beede, asking me to come to Galen's 50th Surprise Birthday Party and not to tell Galen. That it was a no children allowed party. After texting me I texted back and said that nine pm was a little late for me to drive all the way to Katy[redacted](it is about forty-five minute drive) then stay to visit and drive back home. "Judith" seemed upset and said that I was one of Galen's best friends and I had to come. I think I asked who would be there or how many people would be there, and I said that I would try to be there. I did want to go for his birthday but was just unsure of the situation, I thought I could just get him a gift later. I was told by "Judith" not to text back because "she" didn't want Galen to see the texts. I said okay. Then a few days later, maybe a week later, I received another text asking if I was going to make it to Galens party. I said that I didn't think I was going to make it because it was really late. "Judith" seemed upset with me that I would not come to her husband's surprise birthday. (I felt it was really odd that she would be upset that I didn't or couldn't make it. I tried initiating a friendship with her, Judith, on a few occasions and she seemed very disinterested. I am sure a call log can show the texts just before his 50th birthday Apr[redacted]on their phone logs but I do not know for certain since so many different apps or wifi, can be used to text. I know it will show on mine.) I felt by the language and that I did not feel his wife really liked me much so for her to get upset that I would not come to his party seemed incompatible with her, Judiths, personality but was in line with Galens. I felt that it was Galen texting me on his wife's phone and that he was trying to get me to come to his house alone.

16. Galen Beede, Judith Beede, me and my husband whet to dinner together one evening. Galen and my husband drank beer at dinner. We returned to their house, Galen told me to hug him, he told me to put my arms around his neck. I did and he hugged me, then he didn't stop hugging me. He just stayed hugging me for a very long time and super tight, I stopped hugging him and did a sort of "tap-out" he would not stop hugging me. I began to feel awkward and embarrassed. I stopped hugging him and tried to peel him off but he would not let go. Judith Beede and my husband were both near-by, watching, so I said, can someone help me? Judith did not say anything as far as I remember, then my husband said, "Get enough there Galen?" Then he finally let go and he and my husband went into the garage. I sat with Judith for a moment, I was very embarrassed and didn't know what to say to her, I wanted to talk to her about Galen and have a conversation with her about him and how he behaves. I opened the conversation as gently as I could, I asked her "Was Galen trying to make you jealous?" She didn't answer, she changed the subject, we talked about the cancer doctor with the cancer pill and how the FDA went after him, she was familiar with his work, so was I. I realized I could not ask Judith about Galen, that she won't talk to me about him, that I would not be able to confide in her. I felt a little upset that she was so closed towards me. I believe she is a very warm and sweet person. I really felt like Galen was begging for her attention.
17. I felt early on, when we first met, that Galen was all talk. That he did not mean much, if anything about what he was saying. That everything was mainly centered around him just wanting sex. I felt that if he really thought he loved me, the way he pretended to, that he would have sat me down to have a very frank and open conversation with me about what he wanted and what he wanted me to do and what we could do together, the way a normal conversation would go. That if he had done that I would have known he was serious about being with me and not just wanting to have sex with me. He never had a serious conversation with me about the future so I never took him seriously. He was always just saying stuff I thought was dumb, maybe in his experience some women like it. I understood by the actions he never took that he just wanted sex and the consequences of getting caught up in an extramarital affair was not worth it to me.

18. That Galen Beede called me after years of hitting on me and said, he cannot wait any longer, that he needed to know (if I was going to sleep with him) because he would not keep waiting. My thought was waiting for what? I never told him I wanted a sexual relationship with him. I felt like he had made our friendship in his mind, more than it was to me. He did call me a few other times stating the same thing, in a relatively short period of time but I only offered to find him a friend, someone else, which he rejected. However, all my friends I knew were too far anyway so basically I was offering him nothing but only appearing to help him. I felt an open marriage or cheating on a spouse wrong. It only makes what is bad even worse.
19. Years later, recently, Galen Beede and I were talking and he told me he "had to move on" in the sense that he was seeing someone. I was not sure if he was making this up because he thought it would make me jealous or if he truly was engaged in a relationship with someone. [redacted] to be engaged in a relationship with someone and not only in appearances but he stated, he had to move on, and that Judith cannot find out what he does. Perhaps he was in a relationship and at the same time thought it would make me jealous to put it out in front of me or tell me about it, I am really not sure. While talking on the phone, I thought I would [redacted] told him yes, he is right it was a bad idea, but then he quickly changed his mind and said yes, that he wanted to and would "fuck the shit out of me." He said that I would fall in love with him and that once we started we won't want to stop. He said, that I cannot fall in love with him, that he won't leave his wife. I told him, I don't want you to leave your wife. He asked me, You don't? I said no, why would I want that? He said, once we start we won't want to stop, we will never stop: I asked him - why... don't you have self-control? I asked him this because I felt that he already told me he was seeing someone since he could not keep waiting for me and I wondered if he thought he was going to have three women, in my head I thought it was funny. He said well you're going to love it, (meaning sex with him) you are going to love it and you're going to fall in love with me, but you can't, and we won't want to stop. I thought to myself, he has a really big ego to think that, [redacted] because he says he is so good in bed

I will fall in love with him and will never stop having sex with him[redacted] After we hung up I followed the conversation with a text message which he texted me back quickly, we texted a few times but he really does not like to text things that might get him into trouble, so we stopped. I have the text messages as a screen shot. I sent them to "Judiths" number which I am not really sure is her number, so I sent them thinking they are really going to Galen. I am pretty sure it is his but the intention was not really to get him in trouble but to have him think about what he is doing[redacted]

20. I knew Galen Beede wanted to have sex with me but he would often say it in a way as, he is not happily married, he needs a second wife, his wife does not make him happy, that he and I would be happy together, that he and I should leave our spouses to be together, that he and I would make a great couple, and many other things like this. He mentioned our "signs" as in our birthdays and how compatible we are. He would also often call me, visit me, email me, text me, buy me lunch, etc. This went on for several years, I guess about five or more. I never really believed that he believed what he was saying. I felt he just wanted sex. He also said things in such a way that felt like if I had a bad response to him he could back out and say he was just kidding or he would say one of the above things and then make a weird laughing sound. (My thoughts were again, he is talking and not doing, that his words do not meet his actions, he is doing nothing to prove what he is saying. He is playing with me, he is in my opinion a sexual predator. He was willing to lie to me to get me to have sex with him, he was willing to cause me a lot of problems in my marriage to get me to have sex with him. That he wanted me to "do" something (have sex) with him without him actually doing anything to prove me meant what he said. Then he would get what he wanted[redacted]
21. That Galen Beede told me his wife was weird and he hated weird people. This was in a conversation where he said he took her shooting a gun, but she did not want to pick up the gun, that she wanted to touch it, then walk away and walk back up to it and touch it again and that she did this several times before she would shoot it. He said he hated her weirdness in such a way that it to an extent shocked me that he would speak of the mother of his children in such a way and it seemed to me that he really meant it. He appeared to be at the end of his rope so to speak. He was very frustrated in this conversation. I thought Judith was a nice lady but I do understand that people sometimes frustrate each other.
22. Galen Beede often called me to have lunch. I did enjoy being able to talk to someone with a like mind about certain topics. I didn't mind hearing him talk about his problems, it somehow made mine seem less significant. I could sort of drown myself in his problems and forget about mine.

23. Galen Beede would hug me, sometimes for long periods of time. He would ask if I could find someone to baby-sit my child. I told him no, I do not leave her with anyone. One day we met for lunch and he was upset that I brought my daughter with me, he said, I thought you were going to come alone. I do not know why he thought that, I had not told him I would visit him alone.
24. That Galen Beede seemed to not only want a sexual relationship with a woman outside his marriage but that he absolutely needed it.
25. That all the above happened over a period of years. But recently as 2024 Galen Beede said he wanted to fuck the shit out of me. That he has wanted to fuck me for a long time. That he has wanted to spend time with me since we first met, since he first saw me online on the NLA website. Since he did not know me I felt it was crazy for him to act this way towards me when he did not know me. Before he met me he had already had his mind set on having a sexual affair with me.
26. That Galen Beede did speak to me around June of 2024 on the phone, and said to some effect that he cheated on his wife and that she could not find out, but then he tried to retract it and said, to the effect that ... at least not on Judith, as if he admitted he had cheated and got caught, but then said that it was not Judith that he got caught cheating on, he is currently married to Judith and his statement would not make sense, that he can not (present tense) get caught cheating again, but then again would imply he cheated before, but presently at the same time but then he tried to retract his statement and said but he had never cheated on Judith. Which I found impossible to believe because he had been hitting on me over the years. (I already knew he was probably cheating with [redacted] because [redacted] he pursued me for years trying to get me to have sex with him. 2. He told me he had to "move on" as in find someone else to pursue to get them to have sex with them. 3. It was obvious since I knew him. 4. [redacted] made it obvious because she would post [redacted] 5. [redacted] Galen and he was still very interested in the possibility of sex with me.
27. Galen Beede stated to me to the effect that his wife was letting him go four wheeling and he did not want to jeopardize that. This conversation occurred late June on a phone call. I do not recall if he said this before or after his statement about cheating. I took this statement to mean that he had been untrustworthy in the past and that now he is being trusted to go out on his own. He also mentioned that his RV was fully hooked up and that he could meet women there. Then he told me on another occasion that he had family staying in his RV. Another time he said the four wheeler parks had cabins that can be rented and he could stay in the cabin.

28. That my husband commonly referred to Galen Beede as "your boyfriend" calling him, Galen Beede, my boyfriend. This was in reference to the many times Galen would call, text or visit me. That my husband and Galen has spoken at our house a few times and I have heard Galen [redacted] questions about me, like do I dye my hair and stuff like that. In turn my husband who probably fel[redacted] would tell him personal things about me that I thought were none of Galen's business. One day Galen told my husband, "there are a lot of lonely women out there." My husband also fist pounded Galen and he told Galen something like "bro code" meaning they would stick together against women I guess. I think any thinking person would understand why it would be easy for[redacted] (I was in the military and worked in a male dominated field, it was not unusual for me to have male friends that I was close to but not have sex with, I do not think my husband understands this as he has said to me on occasion that if he had to work closely with women he would want to fuck them, he would not be able to not fuck them.)
29. Galen Beede had told me to the effect that if I did not have sex with him he would tell my husband that we did have sex. I don't get upset easily, when I do get upset I don't stay angry and I can easily let things like this go. I felt our friendship was worth maintaining, that he probably meant it in the moment but not in the long term. Sometimes when he would say things like this he would call a few days or week later and apologize. I knew he was having problems so[redacted] - I later spoke to my husband and I told him to the effect that if Galen ever said he had sex with me that he should not simply accept it and to question him about it. I told him if Galen said this ask him about a specific marking on my body.[redacted] accept anything he says just because he said it and he should question him on it and use his best judgment to decide if he believes Galen Beede or not. This was a very scary time because my husband has[redacted] The last time a man put his hands on me, my husband,[redacted] was extremely angry with me and [redacted] and after a long night he was taken into custody by the police in[redacted] After Galen Beede said this I was afraid of what he might tel[redacted] Galen did apologize for having said that at a later time. He would say "I have to stay in honor." I don't really know what that meant to him.
30. [redacted] Galen Beede did cause me problems[redacted] for five or six years. It was a common theme in my home that Galen Beede liked me a little too much, that Galen wanted to be more than friends. My entire immediate family knew this and were often present when Galen Beede expressed his feelings or desire to have sex with me. Everyone knew, not because Galen stated it outright, but that because he was just obvious. My husband could see the phone bill and could see how often Galen would call me.

31. My son [redacted] was often in the presence of Galen Beede when he was around and was well aware that Galen Beede was flirting and hitting on me, even at his young age he could see what Galen Beede was doing. He has made a few comments over the years about Galen and how he acts, what he says, etc. I don't recall the specific things my son would say but I do recall that he noticed Galen and understood what was going on. He is now in his twenties. I recently spoke with him on the phone and he asked specifically about Galen Beede who for a long time was a constant in our lives.
32. My [redacted] has known Galen for most [redacted] him and gets upset when he [redacted] in a certain tone of disapproval, Galen is here!
33. Galen Beede is somewhat cautious as to how he communicates. He prefers phone conversations over texts, emails, chats, etc., and has often told me to go look at his Facebook page. At one point he asked me if I have seen his Facebook page. I told him I prefer not to communicate via Facebook since it is very "impersonal." He said that is one of his main forms of communication and that I should look at his Facebook page. I found communicating with Galen Beede by way of Facebook to be unclear, indirect, easily misunderstood, confusing as to what was aimed towards me or someone else, I believe this to be his way of pretending that something is nothing or claiming that something is nothing because it was very covert. I found that his posts were or could be aimed at more than one person and I was never sure which of his posts were intended for me to see or someone else. I found this to be a waste of my time, if his posts were not intended to have a double meaning then he could just tell me what he wanted to say but It seemed to me that there were things he just could not say to a woman or women and so he used his posts and left them to be interpreted. I found this all a waste of time. I eventually unfriended Galen Beede on Facebook, to which he stated in a somewhat angry and yet surprised tone asking me if I unfriended him and he thought I got hacked, I must have gotten hacked if I did not want to talk to him or "friend" him on social media (Facebook). Later I blocked him on Facebook finding that friendship with him too difficult and confusing.
34. Galen Beede has stated to me that he has a twenty seven or twenty eight years marriage with his wife and that if she ever finds out what he does, she will divorce him and take half of his business. "She can never find out." He said this to me, repeatedly in conversations with him. (I had always imagined that Judith, his wife, probably knew how he was but then realized that I really don't think I know my own husband so maybe she really does not know hers. It even crossed my mind that perhaps they were swingers as in married couples who have sex with other couples. Then when he started saying she could not find out, I realized, maybe she really has no clue.) I assumed because by now he was seeing someone and they were going back and forth on Facebook. I understand "signs" and I am fully aware of semiotics. I notice patterns and I know Galen enough, and am well aware and what he is capable of and what his intentions are (were). Again I refer back in my mind to him pressuring me to have sex with him or he will move on, and him saying, he had to move on afterward, and his inability to state the truth, maybe "truth" is the wrong word, perhaps it is better said that he is unable to speak bluntly or to be honest and found this to have a possible meaning of not wanting his wife to find out what he does, because it would have a negative impact on all his relationships with any woman he might be involved with. I felt that what he was really saying is that if his wife finds out about one woman it will cause him not to be able to see any woman. I began to realize that it is possible that I have been a friend to him, thinking that being his friend helped him through a tough situation or time in his marriage and that my friendship possibly could help him because he could have a female friend to talk to that did not allow him to do something that would wreck his marriage, was for nothing really, that he was simply determined to have a "girlfriend." I realized some time later that if he wanted to wreck his marriage he would and that my friendship with him would not change that, if that is what he wanted to do he would do it with anyone willing to go along with him.

35. I felt that Galen does not want his wife to find out because he does not pay taxes, that because he does not pay taxes if Judith files for divorce she would have the upper-hand. She could ask for anything and if he does not want his finances disclosed, if he does not want it to be found out that he does not pay taxes then he would have to agree to whatever Judith asks for in a divorce. She could ask for anything she wanted and he would likely just agree. He has a lot to lose if she wanted a divorce, more than the average person.
36. I emphatically state and factually state [redacted]
37. That Galen Beede [redacted] and was clearly upset with me and said, "you mean we could have been together this whole time!" [redacted]

[redacted] never really have seen him upset [redacted] I do recall a number that came in on his truck screen on the day [redacted] After that he begged me to get on Facebook, I told him I didn't want to I have not been on Facebook for years, I was able to log in but then I quickly became aware of him [redacted] but never face to face or over the phone, but then he would continue to call me. I was again confused by his odd behavior. Were we friends or not, I could not tell. It is as if he wanted to hate me, he wanted to hate me openly on Facebook, he wanted to call me and act distant where he never did before, but then he also [redacted] didn't want to hate me, would feel bad and call me and be nice. A part of me felt that he was angry because I had not [redacted] and he was trying to make me pay for the past with his current behavior. He, about a month, maybe two later, [I have my call logs printed] after being rude, called me on the phone and said he had just had a deep tissue massage. He was being very flirty on the phone. I did not reciprocate his flirtations and he did seem to become a little impatient with me. I was making mental notes of the entire conversation and his responses. The conversation lasted a few to several minutes, then it sounded like someone was getting into the vehicle and he started talking more professional and we hung up. His sudden flirting was confusing to me. He had been acting meanly towards me and now was calling me to be flirty and he said, he should not be an "asshole." I said, right, there is no reason for it. [redacted] I don't believe I was ever mean to him but he has a way of not saying anything out-right and everything he does has a covertness to it, I feel that he reads into what is said things that are not there, or fails to see things that are there. Perhaps he felt I was being mean when I was not intending to or that being mean to him includes him not getting his way. After contemplation it was my thought that Galen, was mad because I would not have sex with him, that perhaps later he found someone to have sex (him "moving on") with him and started being mean to me because he found someone, then after meeting or sleeping with [redacted] to have admitted to] or meeting her he found her to be not what he perhaps thought, realized it was not what he thought it would be, then began calling me again and suddenly was being nice to me, I guessed in hopes of having a chance to have sex with me [redacted]

[redacted]. At first I was confused by his actions and behaviors but then later, I thought I might have realized what had happened. Someone else had done the same thing to me before, so I recognized the pattern. The pattern of being mean to a women who he likes but does not reciprocate when he finds someone that does reciprocate, but then realizes that he does not like the new girl/friend as much or they grow tired of the new girl/friend and start calling the old one up again trying to work their way back in, being apologetic and such. None of this was worth my time or energy and seemed like some teenage game and nothing like the friendship I thought we had. This kind of thing does not make me jealous it only makes me feel disrespected.

38. I felt that I had been a really great friend to Galen for many years while he was going through whatever he was going through. I never crossed the line [redacted] I simply ignored his sexual advances. I felt like I had been a very good friend and was always there whenever he needed to talk to me, whenever he needed someone to complain to. I had to deal with a lot of blowback from my family members just to be a good friend to Galen. I defended Galen often and reassured everyone we were just friends. I really cared for Galen in a best-friend kind of way [redacted] That when I realized it was so easy for him to be mean to me because o[redacted]he wanted to have sex with, or for any reason, I realized I was his friend but he was never really mine, and if he was not my friend I had no desire or obligation to keep his secrets from anyone. I owe him nothing and I have already given a lot.

39. He called me on the phone, in 2024, I don't recall the date and time exactly but his calls are on my phone bill, he opened the conversation by calling me "girlfriend" he had been being unfriendly towards me previously, so this call and his language was confusing to me. He said he had been being an "asshole" and did something like an apology. He was flirting with me, sounding very flirtatious, however, I was really put-off by his hot and cold demeanor so I just went with the conversation. I simply maintained friendliness, he told me [redacted]ittle [redacted] he began talking to me as if I were a customer he was on the phone with. After a few seconds we hung up.

40. I have heard Galen Beede and [redacted] speaking to each other and they say things such as "bro code" and fist bump, they have talked about or Galen was telling [redacted] about "conservative women" and how they are preferred over liberal women, conservative women [redacted] some other things but I was only paying partial attention, and that Galen has said, there are a lot of lonely women out there. I have heard them say other things to each other but I rarely pay much attention.

41. Galen knew that I knew what he was doing because Galen knows that I know him and he and I have a certain history that involves him asking me for sex. Galen knew that I know what kind of person he is outside his marriage, away from his wife. He knew that I could see what he was doing because he knows that I know him very well and that I know that he has hit on me for a very long time, years in fact. That he tried to get me to have sex with him for many years. That he told me at one point that he could not keep waiting for me to sleep with him, that he had to "move on" and find someone that would have sex with him. That I know him and I could see what he was doing. I could see that [redacted] knew about me, that Galen [redacted] were obvious. [redacted] that were reference to things Galen and I talked about. [redacted] is if Galen had told [redacted] However, I already knew and I believe he knew I knew and later he admitted that he had to "move on" which told me that he knew I knew and there was no reasons to hide it. He had told me he had cheated on Judith, or as if he was currently cheating, but I was not surprised, I already knew he had told me a few times and I know him and I knew that was what he wanted and was looking for. I suspected [redacted] was the one he was moving on with because they both made it obvious to me since I already knew Galen and how he was. They were both making it obvious and through my knowledge o[redacted]t was apparen[redacted] learned from the past to see what is current, I knew how he was with me in the past and so I knew what was happening. Galen had told me many times he needed a second wife, he could support a second household financially. I believe Galen knew I knew and thought that if he could get me to have sex with him then he could hold it against me to stay quiet since he knew I knew what he was doing with [redacted] He also told me he was, "finally happy." Based on my experience with him i knew this meant that he had [redacted] Putting all things together I know what I know is true, and he knows that I know.
42. I have kept an online diary so to speak, it was not intended to be a diary, but is just conversations I had with a friend, with time-stamped and date-stamped on Skype where I have spoken with a friend who is familiar with Galen Beede and on occasion she would ask me about him and I would respond to her, both in text. Some of what is mentioned in this Sworn Statement is in the text on Skype with the time and date stamp.

43. For work on air conditioner and heating unit, he installed the air conditioner/heating unit on my home, after a few years he said he could not drive that far out because it was too far. This was about the time he was telling me he had to "move on" to find someone else. He did not come to the house for a few years, my husband would call him but Galen would not answer the phone. [redacted] would tell me to call him and when I did he would answer the phone but then he would say it is too far to come out. Recently we needed a new thermostat on the wall and something was wrong with the unit, my husband tried to reach Galen but he did not answer, again my husband told me to call Galen. I asked my husband, can't we call someone else, someone local? He asked Why in a somewhat determined voice, as if already accusatory towards me. I was already worried my husband would get upset with me, find it a reason to get drunk and act stupid. I told my husband, last time Galen was here he said it was too far to drive, he said, we needed to find someone closer. I

[redacted]

44. That I notice them, Galen Beede and [redacted] but her [redacted] I caught on very quickly because Galen was doing the same [redacted] that he had done with me for years. [redacted] Galen Beede was married, [redacted] know what he does and that he is a cheater, that he is very sexual and in his words, needs a second wife. I did not need to "try" to see what was going on, it was just in my face and my past experience with Galen Beede made this very apparent and obvious. I didn't know [redacted] Galen was married, after I told [redacted]

45. That Galen Beede appears to and has, I believe, a predatory nature towards women. He seems to me to have a peculiar emotional personality.
46. Other specific and general instances and verbals occurred that are not mentioned here.
